

Artisans' Treasure

Exploring the Creative Dimensions of Spirituality through Art

This class is especially designed for uplifting, through expressing creativity. Each person can make a spiritually meaningful keepsake/art project. We will use an assortment of materials, including paint, gemstone beads, glass, tile, carpeting, and fabric. We can create quilted objects, memorial boxes, collages, wall hangings, or other special heirlooms, as a group, as well individually.

Sundays, from 12:30 pm until 2:30 pm

Class fee is $60.00 per four week session. The art supply fee is $20.00, (no refund of this one-time fee after the first day of class.)

The supply fee is due at the first class meeting.

Although spirituality may be discussed, people of all cultures, and faiths, are welcome to participate in this nonreligious gathering.

Please call for additional information.
